

Doctor certified in nuclear cardiology

PORTSMOUTH — Portsmouth Regional Hospital announced Cardiologist Mark I. Jacobs, M.D., F.A.C.C., achieved specialty Board Certification in Nuclear Cardiology. Jacobs is now entitled to designate himself as "Diplomate of the Certification Board of Nuclear Cardiology."

The CBNC is a not-for-profit corporation established to develop and administer practice-related examinations in the field of nuclear cardiology. The purposes of the CBNC program is to establish the domain of the practice of Nuclear Cardiology for certification; to assess the level of knowledge demonstrated by nuclear cardiology specialists in a valid manner; to encourage professional growth and to serve the public by encouraging quality patient care.

Jacobs is board certified in cardiovascular disease and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine. He is board certified in echocardiography by the American Society of Echocardiography and a fellow of the American College of Cardiology. He is a fellow of the American Society of Echocardiography.

Jacobs is on the active medical staff of Portsmouth Regional Hospital and associated with the doctors of Atlantic Cardiology Associates, P.A., located in the medical office building adjacent Portsmouth Regional Hospital. For information on Dr. Jacobs, visit www.portsmouthhospital.com or the Atlantic Cardiology Web site, www.atlanticcardiology.org.